

Rental terms

To rent a kayak at Gräsö Kanotcentral, you must fulfill the following:

- You must be at least 18 years old, or accompanied by a guardian.
- You must be able to swim.
- You must wear a life jacket.
- You must report and reimburse Gräsö Canotcentral (at cost price) if incurred damage or lost equipment.
- You are aware that all rental activities take place at your own risk. It is your responsibility to follow applicable traffic/sea regulations. Gräsö Kanotcentral doesn't wear anything at all liability for personal or property damage that may occur during the rental period.
- Be prepared to show identification for any type of rental. It is enough that one person in the party over the age of 18 can provide identification, and then it is that person who responsible for all rented equipment.
- By your acceptance of these rental conditions, a binding agreement arises. Upon receipt booking, a booking confirmation is automatically sent by e-mail with information about the rental period.
- In accordance with the Data Protection Act, you must agree to us registering your data. You have the right to have the data deleted.
- We follow the General Complaints Board's recommendations in the event of a dispute.
- You agree to us sending you e-mails with booking confirmation and follow-up e-mails. We will not send newsletters or other e-mails after your visit with us.

Booking rules:

- We do not make refunds for booked kayaks. If you choose the rebooking guarantee, you can rebook your tour up to 24 hours before the tour starts. Exceptions are made for thunderstorms or other circumstances that can make the paddle trip dangerous.

Good to know!

Customize your tour to your own ability. If it's your first time kayaking or SUP - stay close to land at all times. On the lake, the right-hand rule applies, and as a paddler you are always obliged to turn.

If you should capsize - use the kayak as a flotation aid and swim to shore and empty the kayak - then paddle on.
